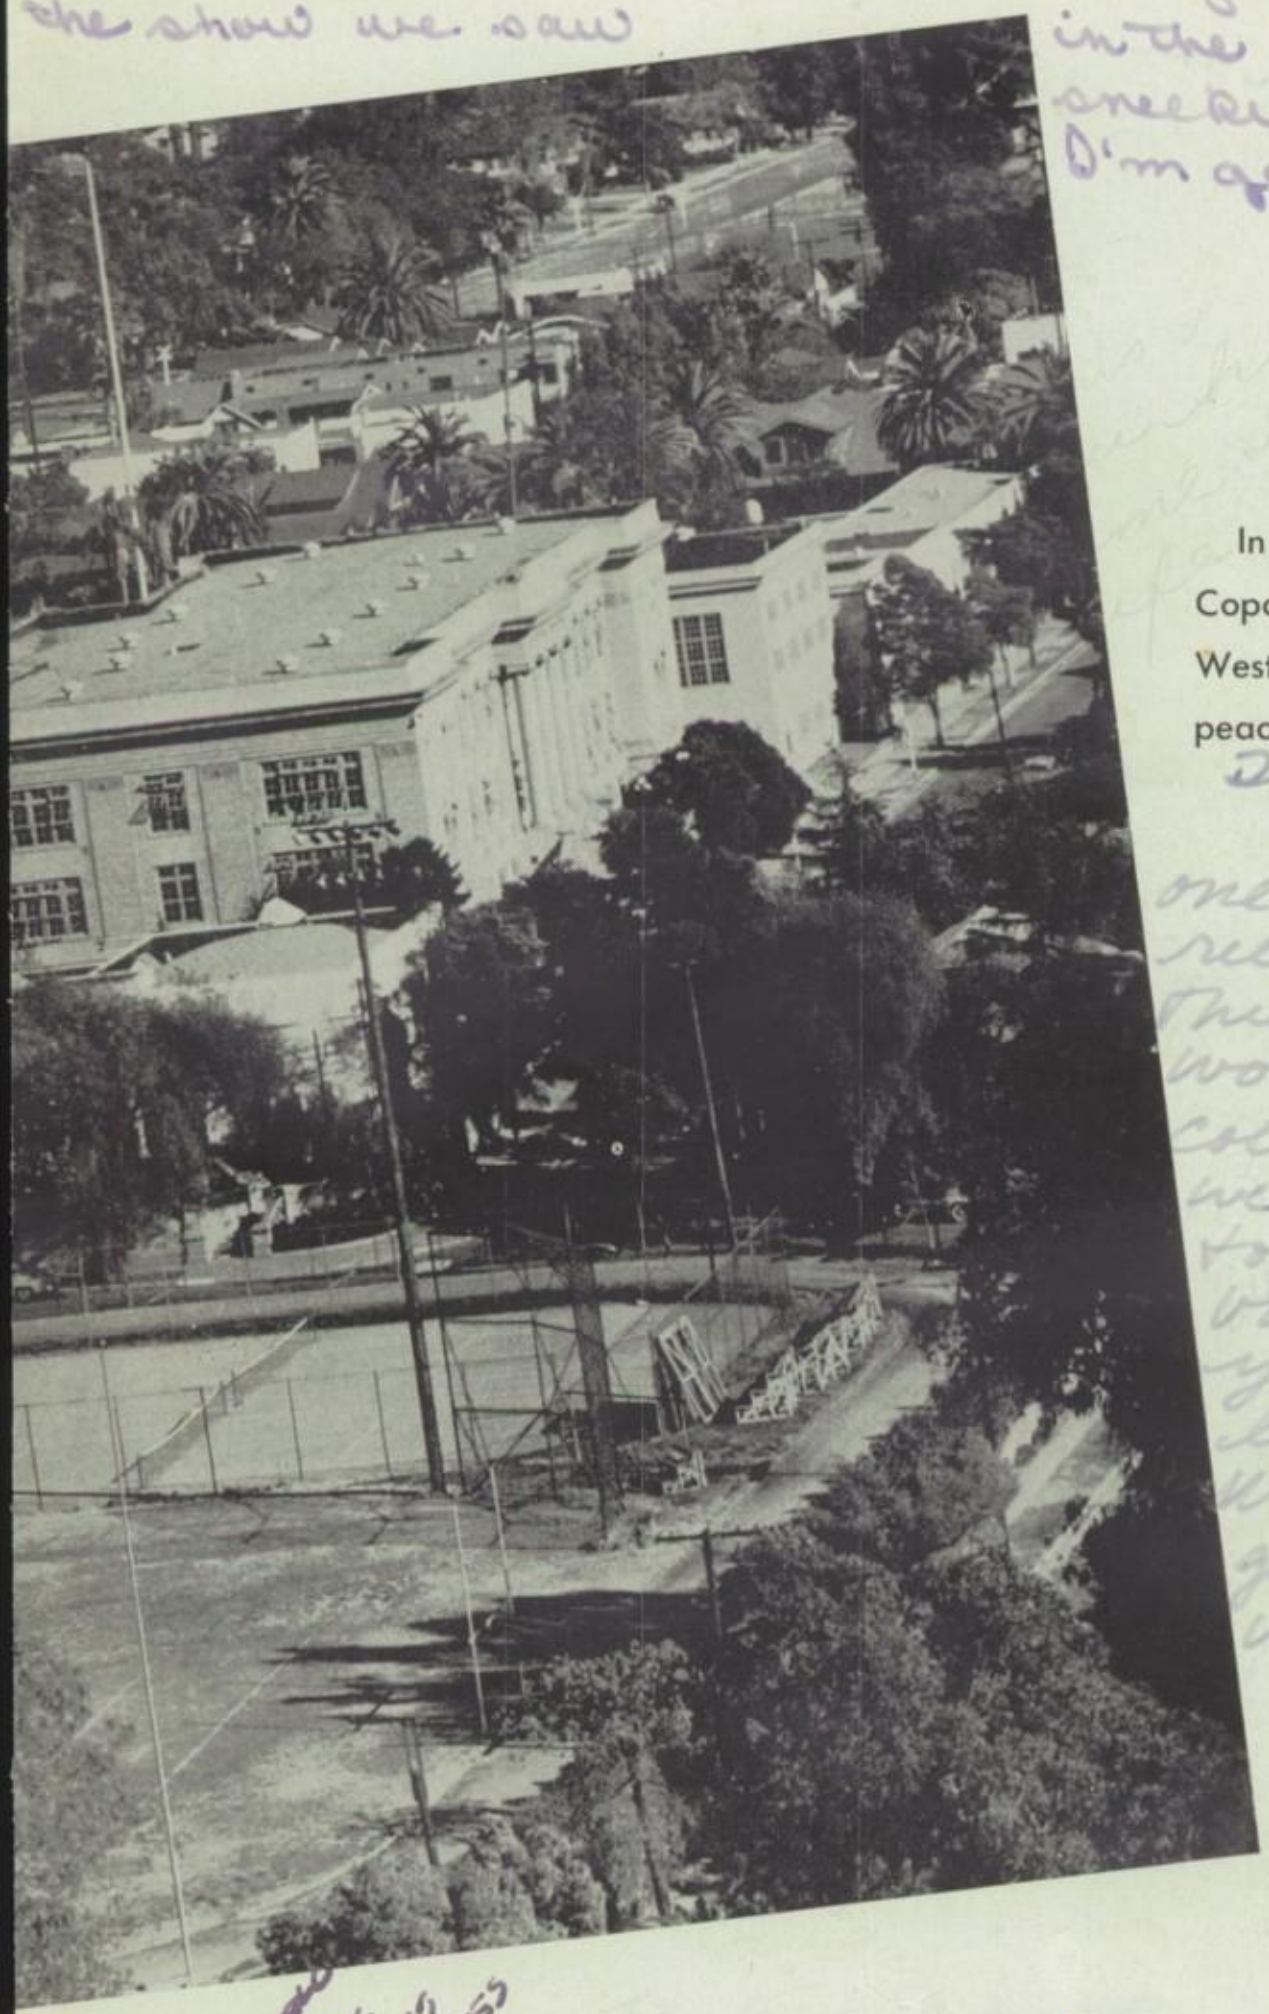
To Janet the gal with the cute freckles —
Have fun at Cal, as I know you will. Do you remember the show we saw in the 9th grade. More fun sneaking up in the balcony.. I'm going to miss you, honey.



Foreword

In choosing a Latin American theme the Copa de Oro pays tribute to the unity of the Western Hemisphere and the hope for world peace.

Dear Janet,
This sure has been one great year. I am so relieved to be out of this school. Have a wonderful time at college next year, and we will have to get together during the vacations. I wish you the best of luck with Don. Write me when you get to college and I will do the same!

Administration

The year 1950-51 has seen great progress in South Pasadena-San Marino High School in keeping its fine reputation in Southern California as well as in other various states. The capable administrators who have led our school in the past year are Mr. Laurence Harper, superintendent; Dr. Elmer J. Erickson, principal; and Mr. James R. Carpenter, vice-principal.

Filling the newly created jobs of Girls' Counselor and Boys' Counselor were Miss Harriet Hardy and Mr. Frank Williamson, respectively. Ably assisted by Miss Margaret Lauer and Mrs. Beatrice Ahrens, they have done a fine job of student counseling and arrangement of their personal programs. Miss Hardy also has served as adviser to the Girls' League and Mr. Carpenter as adviser to the Boys' League.

The Iowa Testing program was administered to the students for the third year. The results are used to help the students understand themselves, help the counselors in assisting the students and they have aided the faculty in their instructions.

Faculty

Highlighting the year of 1950-51 were several interesting faculty meetings. The faculty was defeated in the annual faculty vs. student volleyball game by a score of 28 to 15. At Christmas time the Girls' League Cabinet serenaded the faculty in the principal's office with Christmas carols. Also during the Christmas season the faculty met at the home of Mr. Edgar Jacobs, radio teacher, to complete their annual progressive dinner party.

The opening of school last September found several changes in the personnel of the faculty. Among those who had left were Mrs. Margaret Mills, counselor and English teacher, who was replaced by Mrs. Beatrice Ahrens; Mr. Ben Henry, print and shop instructor, whose position was filled by Mr. Donald Phippin; Miss Amy Foote, dramatics teacher, for whom Mr. Richard Wilson stepped in after she retired; Miss Jesse T. Oldt, who has been replaced by Miss Harriet H. Hardy as Girls' Counselor; Mr. Robert Naegler was succeeded by Mr. Henry Kehler, recently returned from Brazil; Mr. Ronald James, whose position was filled by Mr. Irving Hicks; and Mr. Charles Mendenhall, who retired as band teacher. Also new to the faculty were Miss Donna Mae Halverson, who came to take Miss Helen Reese's place as physical education teacher, when Miss Reese moved to the position of librarian; and Mrs. Marietta Schick, who is teaching a completely new course in girls' physical education, modern dancing. Mr. J. Douglas Bookhout replaced Mr. Bothe as chemistry teacher when Mr. Bothe moved to the mathematics department to replace Mr. Jerry Altshuler who went into business.

Teachers talk over the events of the day while selecting their food in the faculty lunch room, a part of the school cafeteria.

Commissioners

Interpretation and execution of the school's constitution and the representing of the student body was vested in seven commissioners headed by Buzz Ragatz, commissioner-general. It is through this student government that the South Pasadena-San Marino High School strives to develop leadership, reliability, and other qualities essential to good citizenship.

The duties of the Commissioner of Interior, Frank Schwartz, were mainly to head the campus committee and to help the student body keep the campus in an immaculate condition. Carol McConnell, commissioner of correspondence, was in charge of taking minutes at all meetings of the commission and putting them on the bulletin board where the student body could read them. Ken Brown, commissioner of athletics, was responsible for Color Day and for informing the student body about sports activities. Hank Jarboe, commissioner of publicity, made it his task to notify all local papers of events taking place around the school. Kay Strahan, commissioner of activities, and Tom Mitchell, commissioner of finance, had the duty of bringing ASB ticket sales to 97.2 per cent in September along with preparing assemblies for Kay and Tom's keeping the financing straight.

Annabelle Horchitz, commissioner of girls, and commissioner of boys Jim Stackpole were in charge of all league activities and the traditional activities of "Hello Day."

Conducting the ASB sales in September, taking the "Tiger Topics" movie which is shown at the end of the year, supervising the election of the football queen, sponsoring the annual Commission Dance, this year called the "Royal Ball," and representing SPSMHS at student conferences were a few of the many duties undertaken by the commission.

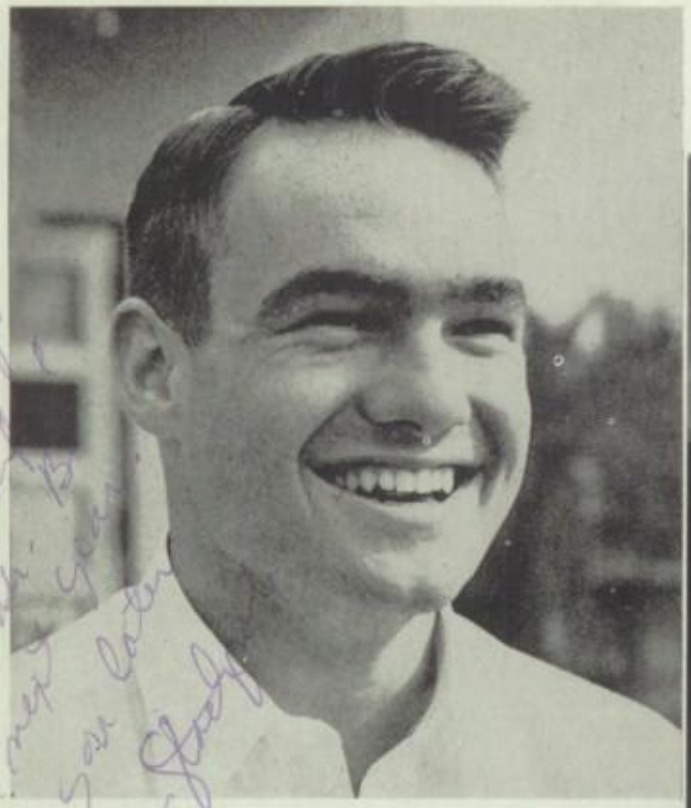
Boys' League



JIM STACKPOLE
Commissioner of Boys

BOYS' LEAGUE OFFICERS AND ADVISER. Seated, Bob Long, Phil Brabyn, Mr. Carpenter. Standing, Bill Sevadjian, Jim Stackpole.

Boys' League activities were marked by an important change this year with the organization of committees similar to those of the Girls' League. The committees are agriculture, architecture, athletics, automobile, aviation, body building, hunting and fishing, military service, photography, popular music, radio and drama, radio and television, science, world affairs, and wrestling. These committees were substituted for most of the regular meetings.

The year's activities began with the "Mixer", a stag dance, planned by the Boys' League and Girls' League together. Other activities for the year included the Boys' League dance in April, a series of handball and model airplane tournaments, the decathlon, and the most important event, the Golden Gloves amateur boxing tournament.

The Boys' League plays a large part in student government at South Pasadena. The League president, Jim Stackpole, attends all Commission meetings and the League Council assists the commission in maintaining a high standard of citizenship and spirit. The vice-president, Phil Brabyn, heads the Boys' Campus Committee, while Bill Sevadjian, as secretary, records all the league activities and Bob Long, treasurer, manages the finances.

Secretarial Staff

Checking absences, sending out transcripts, checking lost books, and keeping the numerous records straight have been the jobs of this year's hard-working office staff. They are, left to right, Mrs. Leahy, principal's office; Mrs. Smith, counselor's office; Mrs. Dean, assistant librarian; Mrs. Dillon, Dr. Erickson's secretary; and Mrs. Gumaer, attendance office.

Cafeteria Staff

The cafeteria staff, under the direction of Mrs. Bernadine Irving, has completed another successful year of serving low cost food at noon and at brunch. They are, left to right, Mrs. Clara Dancy, Mrs. Irene Eastman, Mrs. Dorothy Merritt, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Mrs. Martha Brandt, and Mrs. Irving.

Custodians

One of the hardest jobs on campus is that of keeping the campus clean. Headed by Mr. Michael Sabula, the custodians have done the job well, many of them working late hours. They are, front row, left to right, Mr. John Howie, Mrs. Betty Baker, Mr. Wilber Patterson, and back row, left to right, Mr. Steve Zewatch, Mr. Sabula, Mr. Carl Whitaker, and Mr. Harry Madley.

Girls' League

ANNABELLE HORCHITZ
Commissioner of Girls

Under the able leadership of Annabelle Horchitz, president, and Miss Harriet Hardy, girls' counselor and league adviser, the Girls' League had a very successful year. The new girls' party, with the traditional fashion show planned by Sally Floyd, commenced the year's many activities. Next on the list was the "Heavenly Hop," the annual backward dance, headed by Sally Winn.

During 1950-51 the Girls' League inaugurated the publication of their own paper, THE BIG LEAGUER, which was edited by Betita Barr, publicity chairman.

The Girls' League cabinet members continued their tradition of Christmas caroling this year and also sent Valentines to the members of the faculty. Career day, which was greatly expanded throughout the school this year, was under the leadership of Nancy Kent, chairman of the senior career committee, and Carol Cleminson, chairman of the sophomore-junior career committee.

The May Day festival, always a gala event for the girls at SPSMHS, was supervised by Susan Lundy, chairman of the ways and means committee, while sophomore, junior and senior class teas were headed by class representatives, Barbie Nay, Nancy Norris, and Marilyn Kiech respectively. The year was climaxed by the annual Girls' League picnic at Arroyo Seco, which was planned by Mary Kropylus, chairman of the sports committee.

Other league offices were occupied by Sally Anderson, vice-president, Carol Strahan, secretary, and Debby Patty, treasurer.

LOU AMESTOY—President
BILL BLAKESLEE—Vice-President

As the members of the class of 1951 reminisce the events of their senior year, they will have many fond memories. Among these will be their first appearance in their white senior sweaters with blue numerals, the junior-senior prom, held at the Glendale Civic, the hilarious senior play, Ring Around Elizabeth, and, of course, the highly anticipated graduation ceremonies. Other memorable events highlighting the year were the Baccalaureate services, the senior mothers' tea, planned by Marilyn Kiech, the senior breakfast, and the farewell assembly. Leading their class through the year, which proved a perfect close to high school for the seniors, were Lou Amestoy, president; Bill Blakeslee, vice-president; Sally Winn, secretary; Jack Westlund, treasurer; and Miss Helen Reese, adviser.

Class of '52

With an original Christmas booth of Santa Claus in Toyland looking over his list of all the countries, the junior class won first place in the annual Christmas booth contest.

Leading the junior activities were the class officers, Ted Polich, president; Dan Feltham, vice-president; Marguerite Addoms, secretary; Dennis Smith, treasurer; and Mrs. Elizabeth Berlot, adviser.

Some of the big events for the juniors were the junior-senior prom, the sweater design contest, the junior talent assembly with a television theme, the elections for the 1952 commissioners, and the junior mothers' tea directed by Nancy Norris, junior representative on the Girls' League Cabinet.

The year ended with the junior girls marching in the traditional flower chain in the graduation ceremony.

Taking second place with their Christmas booth, the sophomore class was off to a fine start under the able leadership of their class officers Alan McQueen, president; Ronny Clyde, vice president; Barbara Nay, secretary; and Shirley Jones, treasurer.

With the assistance of Mrs. Doris Severtson, class adviser, the year's activities included the annual Mothers' tea under the direction of Barbie Nay, sophomore representative of the Girls' League. The theme for the tea was a preview of high school life with scenes acted out of the important events of the school year from the new girls' party at the beginning of the year to the signing of the Copas at the end of the year.

Sophomores presented their annual assembly on April 20, and ended their year's activities traditionally by decorating the stands for graduation.

With the help of Donna Hoffman and Gretchen Scholtz the sophomores received second place in the Christmas booth contest.

Bengals

Chosen because of their leadership, willingness to serve, cooperation, and initiative, the Bengals are hard working and proud of their positions. Two of their most important duties are ushering at football games and assemblies. Serving as guides at open house and controlling the Color Day crowd are other jobs of a Bengal.

"Honest Abe's Social," their annual dance, was presented in February and proved to be one of the year's main events.

Known around the school by their navy blue sweaters bearing the Bengal symbol, these students are advised by Miss Hester Lauman with Jo French serving as president. Vernon Chase was elected vice-president with Sue Burke as secretary and Tim Green as treasurer.

The Bengal information booth is a busy spot on the first day of school.

Bengal officers and adviser are Miss Hester Lauman, Vernon Chase, vice-president; Sue Burke, secretary; Tim Green, treasurer; and Jo French, president.

Pep Association

Headed by the Commissioner of Athletics, Ken Brown, the head yell leader, Tim Norton, and the head song leader, Marlene Gunderson, the Pep Association was responsible for the planning of our pep rallies, of color day, and of the rooting section at the football games.

Other members of the Pep Association this year were all of the yell and song leaders, head of Tigerettes, Sally Floyd, sports announcer, Edward Robinson, band president, Dick Lindley, and representatives of the Girls' and Boys' League cabinets. In general this group establishes and maintains the spirit of the school.

Under the leadership of this organization, the activities of the majorettes, tigerettes, flag girls, and the cheer leaders were planned. Most of this planning showed up in the intricate numbers staged at the football games. The Tigerettes, in their third year, followed SPSMHS' colorful band down the football field, at half time, breaking into carefully prepared routines with the majorettes and flag girls.

Marlene Gunderson, head song leader, was in charge of all the business affairs concerning this organization.

The Pep Association can truly be considered an instrumental factor in the overwhelming school spirit for which South Pasadena is known.

ORETTES. Jean Stanyer, Jeanne Loveland, Beverly Smith, e Johns, Modesta Brewton.

FLAG GIRLS. Marcia Long, Mary Fenton, Sally Geisel, Janet Skaer, Virginia Watson, Delcie Calzone.

Dear Janet,
We finally made it.-
Janet, I want you to know that I think you're one wonderful girl.
Best of everything in college and with Don.
Love, Marilyn Barton

good luck in all the coming years Janet. You're a wonderful friend.

After the relief from the strain of meeting deadlines, planning the dummy, scheduling pictures, and generally attending to all the annual essentials, the Copa staff hopes that their efforts meet with satisfaction of the student body.

Jinny Constans, editor-in-chief, competently handled the enormous task of coordinating the staff. Assisting Jinny was John Gerhart who had charge of the faculty and also aided Mike Giddings with the boys' sports section.

In charge of scheduling pictures for the junior and senior sections was Nancy Wallace, who frequently had to confer with Mr. Ernest Brooks, photographer.

Jeanne Loveland did a fine job of organizing the classes' pages while Gloris Gosch handled the organizations division. Kay Strahan as girls' sports and school life editor had the job of soliciting pictures from students. Bob Hubert was business man-

The Tiger staff had a busy year meeting weekly deadlines, handing out assignments to cubs, rewriting copy, writing headlines, planning pages and writing editorials.

Led by Dolly Lewis, who did an efficient job as editor, the staff includes Alice Painter, who was in charge of the first page and was assisted by Judy McNair. Debby Patty, and Bob Ingram took care of the second page consisting of humor and feature stories. Third page editor was Jeff Fernald and Larry Lloyd edited the sports page. The photography was under the direction of Charles Everts and Ronny Mardigian while Beverly Kennedy was business manager. Sally Beel handled the circulation and Carol Van Dorn was alumni editor.

Reporting for the staff are the cub reporters who comprise Mr. Crook's first period journalism class.

The Quill and Scroll is the school organization devoted to the furtherance of interest in journalism. It is open to all staff members and cubs who have a "2" average or above. Officers are John Gerhart, president; Betita Barr, vice-president; and Shirley Blalock, secretary-treasurer.

Watching Mr. Crook wield his mighty pencil of censorship over the latest edition of the TIGER are Dolly Lewis, Alice Painter, Hank Jarboe, Larry Lloyd, and Bob Ingram.

CSF

The C.S.F. was headed this year by Jane Brabyn, president; Charles St.Clair, vice-president; Carolyn Thompson, secretary; Tom Shepard, treasurer and Miss Ruth Richardson, adviser. Membership in this organization, which was founded at SPSMHS in 1942 by Mrs. Olwin Pettit, is on a semester basis. To become a member three "1's" and a "2" are required. The purpose of this organization is to foster higher standards on the part of the students and the highlight of the year was the presentation of pins to the life members at the final assembly of the year. To become a life member a student must retain membership in the C.S.F. for four out of six semesters with at least one semester in their senior year.

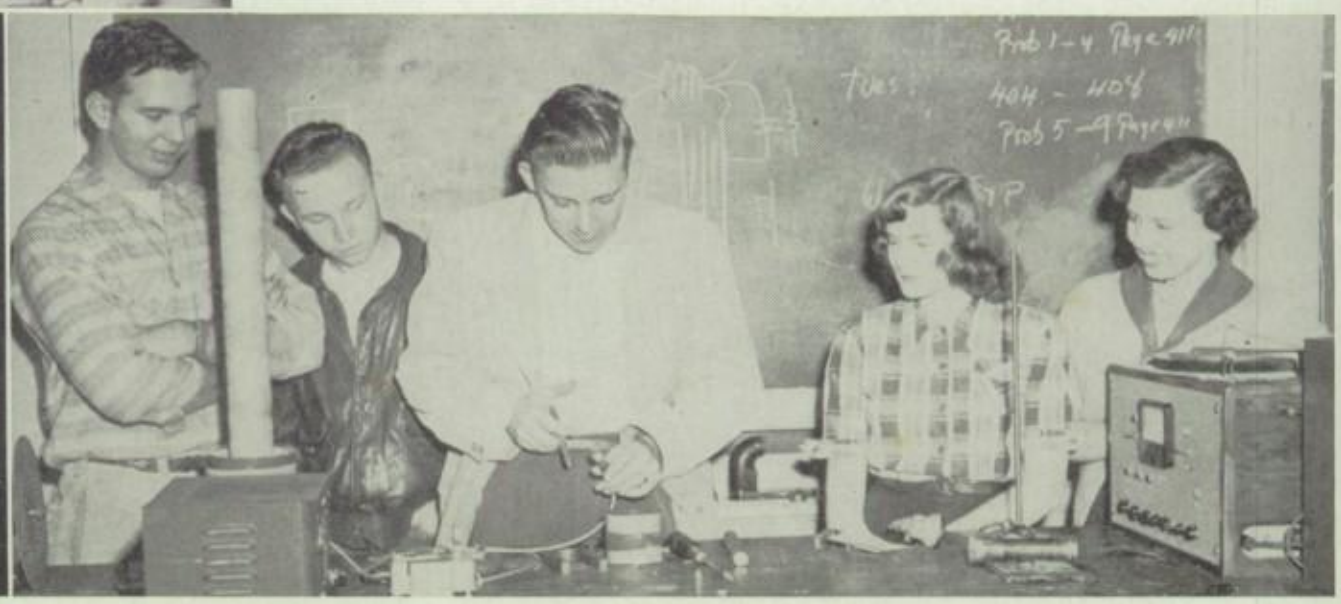
To increase the interest in science and to gain scientific knowledge aside from that attained at school is the main purpose of the Cimota Club, established in 1946 and under the direction of Mr. Wayne Steimle. Excursions this year have included trips through the Kaiser Steel Plant, General Motors, and March Field. There were also demonstrations about glass blowing, ultra violet rays, oil testing, and movies on rockets during the meetings.

Officers for the fall semester were Richard Edson, president; Ralston Riggs, boys' vice-president; Janet Woodburn, girls' vice-president; Joan Kettenburg, secretary; Bill Mellentin, treasurer; and Jim Imler, historian.

The officers for the spring semester included Gene Dryden, as president; Brian Moore, boys' vice-president; Joan Kettenburg, girls' vice-president; Lynn Turek, secretary; Jim Imler, treasurer; and Charles Everts, historian.

Red hot coke is seen being pushed from the large coke oven at night during the Cimota Club trip to the Kaiser Steel Mill at Fontana.



Dalles Speers, a former club president, returns to show his experiments with light transmission and photoelectric cells. Gene Dryden, Lee Magnolia, Elizabeth Wagner, and Lynn Turek look on.

Tiger Eyes

Tiger Eyes is a nature club organized for the purpose of giving students interested in nature an opportunity to become better acquainted with and to develop a greater appreciation for the wonders of his environment. Emphasis is directed to conservation of the natural beauty of Southern California.

The activities of the club include field trips to mountain, desert, and shore. The club sponsors social activities during the school year.

The club was lead by Miss Mary Jo Sowards, adviser; Bob Hubert, president; Tetsuo Ueda, vice-president; Sally Williams, secretary; and Ben Wright, treasurer.

French Club

To forward an interest in the French language and to inform the students of native French customs is the purpose of the French Club. The club was under the leadership of Olwen Pettit, adviser; Linda Ruddy, president; Jean Diether, vice-president; Mary Alice Hood, secretary; and Jean Avis, treasurer.

Among various activities of the club were the Christmas party, at which Barbara Thompson spoke of her experiences in Paris, an enjoyable French dinner, and a picnic in the spring.

Junior-Senior Art Club

To give the students added experiences not adapted to the classroom is the purpose of the Junior-Senior Art Club. The members are chosen from applications by a board of eight members chosen by the officers of the previous year.

The club sponsors a summer Art Club Scholarship known as the Vanna Peters Memorial Scholarship. The Art Club was led by Linda Williams, president; Janet Olson, vice-president; Beth Muren, secretary; Luanna Gregson, treasurer, and Miss Hester Lauman, adviser.

Miss Lauman's advanced drawing class works hard on a problem.

Sophomore Art Club

Membership in the Sophomore Art Club is open to all sophomore students taking art as an elective course. Its purpose is to encourage a general interest in art. The club was led this year by Donna Hoffman, president; Gretchen Scholtz, vice-president; Merlin Pope, secretary; Cessie Blennerhasset, treasurer; and Mrs. Roma Anderson, adviser.

Red Cross

The Red Cross Council is affiliated with the American Red Cross. The Council is made up of class room representatives, the chairman of the social service committee of the boys' league, and the student who has attended the National Junior Red Cross Training Camp of the preceding year.

The Council, this year led by Miss Ruth Richardson, adviser, and Gwen Moore, student adviser, assumes supervision of all Red Cross activities of the school.

The main activity was planning and promoting the boxes filled by the three classes at Christmas time and the annual Red Cross Assembly.

Campus Committees

The purpose of the Campus Committee is to promote cooperation among the students in maintaining a clean and beautiful campus. Each year the committees are chosen from the applications made by students who wish to serve their school. The girls' league vice-president, Sally Anderson, and boys' league vice-president, Phil Brabyn head each of the respective committees. Frank Schwartz, commissioner of interior, did a fine job of supervising both committees. He was advised by Mr. James Carpenter.

Each day the campus was graded by the heads of the committees, the commissioner of interior, and some members of the faculty. Early dismissal on Friday depended on the average campus grade for the week. This combined with pride for the appearance of the school encouraged the students to help maintain a high standard on the campus.

The S Club is the letterman's club of South Pasadena-San Marino High School. Membership is limited to those students who have attained ten points in inter-scholastic sports or earned a varsity letter in their Senior year. It is advised by Coach C. Merrill Green, director of athletics and headed by Bob Long, president.

The S Club votes on all athletic awards, as well as on the time for uncovering stripes.

Ski Club

To develop an interest in the sport of skiing is the object of the ski club which has just completed its third year of existence since it was revived at SPSMHS. The only requisite for membership is an interest in skiing and contrary to popular conception not a knowledge of skiing techniques. The members took part in such activities as two trips to Snow Valley, becoming members of the Far West Ski Association, and receiving a magazine for skiers.

The forty club members were led by Mr. Henry Kehler, adviser; John Berby, president; Jon Van Oosten, vice-president; Sue Burke, secretary; and Virginia MacHarg, treasurer.

A Salute To The '50 Varsity

South Pasadena, inspired by the expert leadership of Head Coach Frank Williamson and Line Coach James Eacutt, once more was the winner of the Foothill League. For the second straight year the powerful Tigers defeated every member of their League schedule, and it took a fine Santa Monica team to stop them in the CIF play-offs. A speedy, high-powered backfield operating behind a big, hard-charging line, made things tough for every opponent. This year's championship marked the sixth time in ten years that Coach Williamson's teams have finished on top.

JOHN ROBERG

The Tigers started off as a lethargic team as Mark Keppel, paced by hard-running Don Hickman and a fast, powerful line, humbled the Tigers in the season opener 25-7. The team pulled themselves together and romped over El Monte 33-7, and Fullerton, CIF runnerups, 19-0. Burbank gave the Tigers a scare in the League opener, rolling to a two touchdown lead in the first half, before bowing 21-13. The vaunted SP offense was slowed down on a muddy field as the Tigers scored but two touchdowns in beating Burroughs 12-0. Hoover proved to be just a warm-up for the league championship game with Glendale, as the hapless Tornadoes bowed 41-7. Glendale gave the Tigers a rough time of it in the first half, leading 13-6 at the intermission.

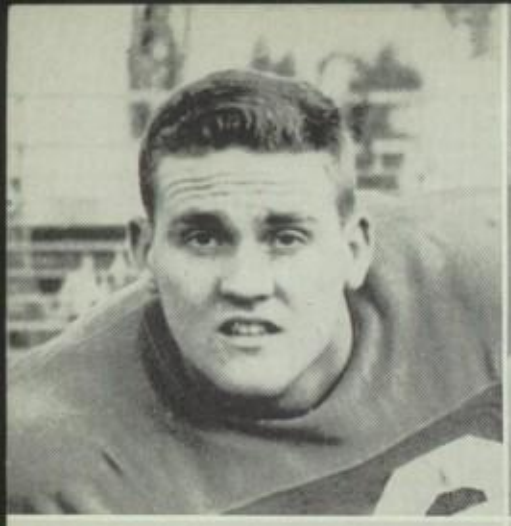
The ones who led the Tiger Team. Co-Coptains: John Roberg, Mike Giddings.

But the Dynamiters were no match for the inspired Tigers in the second half, as the SP line tore Glendale's line to shreds, and the speedy backs romped to a 26-13 win. Muir, fighting all the way, fell before a let-down Tiger team 34-26. In the CIF play-offs, a high-geared Santa Monica team turned on the heat in the second half to beat the never say die Tigers 20-7.

TIGERS ON ALL-LEAGUE TEAM. TOP: Bill Sevadjian, Bob Long. Bottom: John Roberg, Mike Giddings.

Sheppard, Jordan, Martell, Hammond, Feltham, Mammano, J. Trautman, H. Trautman, Mouron, King, Danninger, Cowan, Cotton, Vandervort, Simpson.
3RD ROW: Gerhart, Thomas, Beery, de Thomas, Renwick, Levinsky, Holden, Webster, Kirkpatrick, Kennedy, Alexander, Broadhead, French.



Bob Rowe—Rugged Tackle. Opened holes for the hard driving backs.

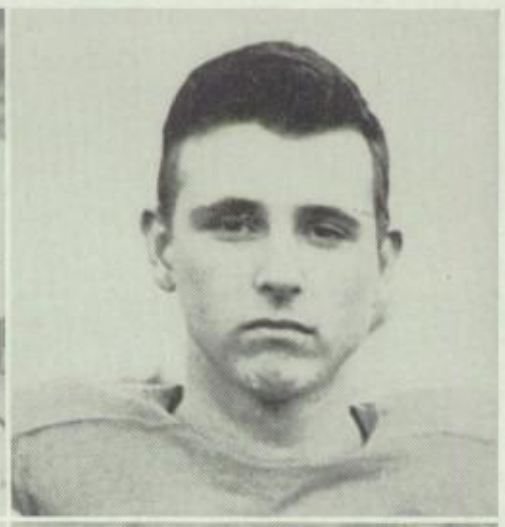
Don Bennett—"Little Don" at 240 pounds did a bang-up job at tackle.

Ted Scott—Tall, rangy end. Good offensive end and a fine pass-catcher.

Bob Long—Big, rugged end. Fine pass-catcher and tops on offense. Unanimous All-League.



Pete Reynolds—Fine passing quarterback. Turned in a good job on both offense and defense.

Brock Cowan—Steady guard. A good offensive and defensive lineman.

Bill Sevadjian shown on an end run against Keppel. Keppel beat the Tigers 25-7.

George Gibbs drives through a hole in the El Monte line. (67) Stackpole; (62) King; (51) Ragatz; (55) Rowe; Giddings leading interference.

John Roberg blocking a Burroughs man as Bill Sevadjian rambles. (51) Ragatz; (67) Stackpole; (66) T. Scott, all lending assistance.

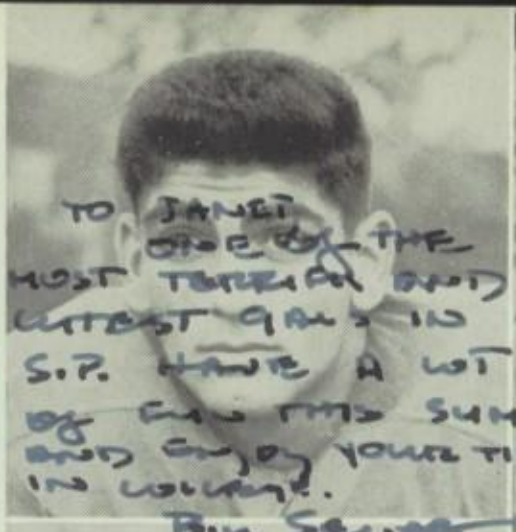
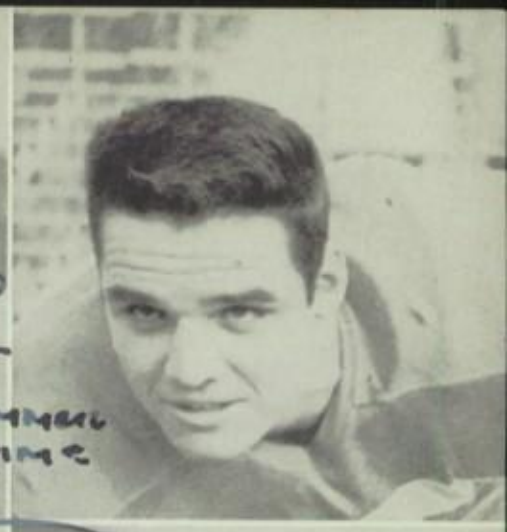
Mike Giddings blocks a Hoover end as Pete Scott romps to a TD on the first play of the game.



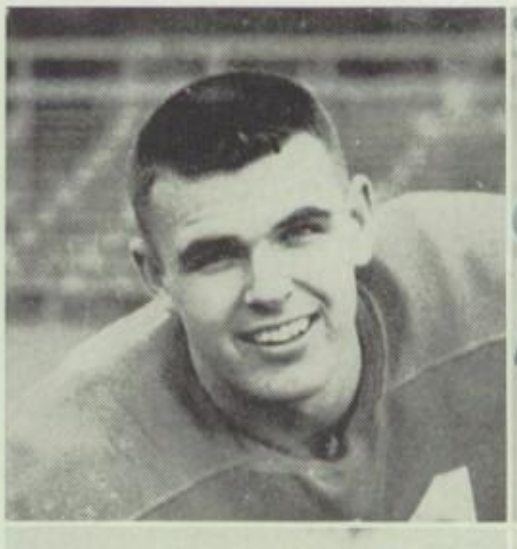


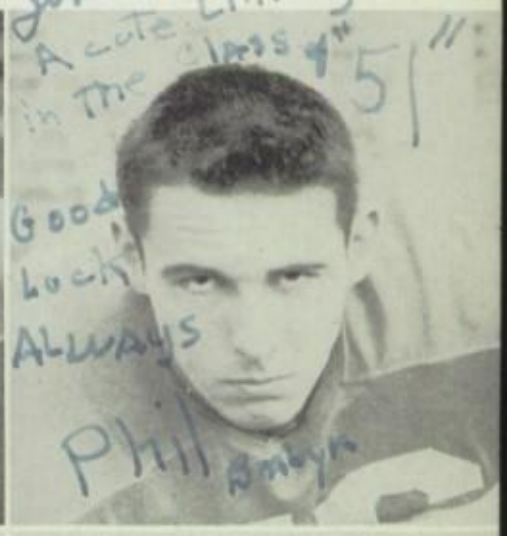
Bill Sevadjian—Most valuable back in the league. Great runner and a hard tackler.

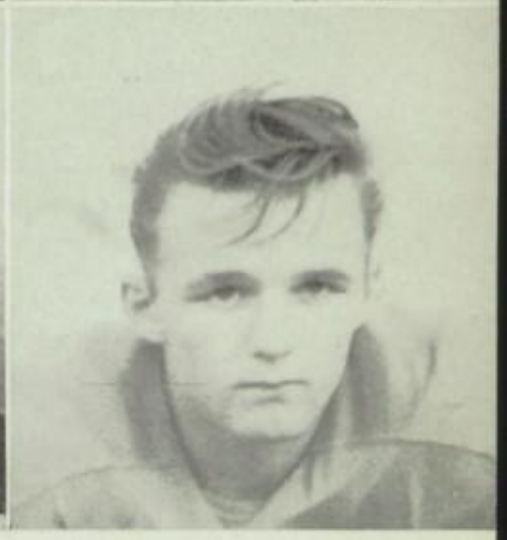
Frank Schwartz—Fine end. Played outstanding defensive ball all season.

Mike Giddings — Fastest lineman. Led team in playing time. All-League guard.

Howell Cotton—Will be top quarterback next year. Fine passer and a top signal-caller.





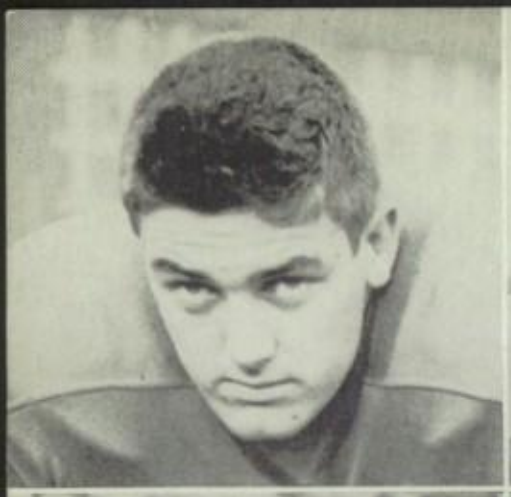


Buzz Ragatz — Great line-backer. Never let up and played a fine game at center.

John Roberg — Outstanding lineman. A cinch on the All-League team.

Phil Brabyn — "Scrapper" of the team. Fast, agile tackle who played fine football.

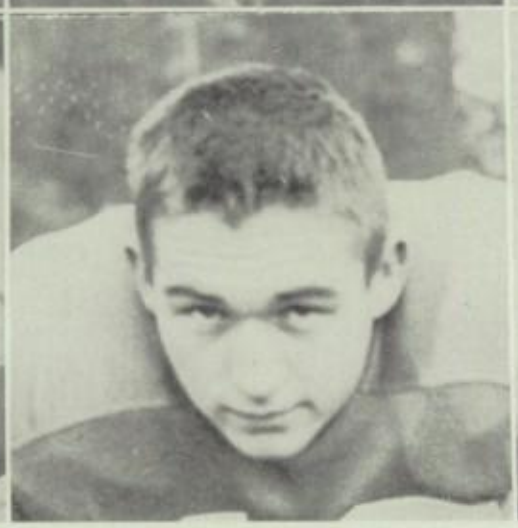
Pete Scott — Outstanding runner and defensive player. Was "most improved player."



Bert Mouron—Big senior fullback. Helped team with his fine spirit.

Pete Hubbard — A very capable lineman. Did a fine job at center.

Wells Martell — Returning junior. Will be a top halfback next year.

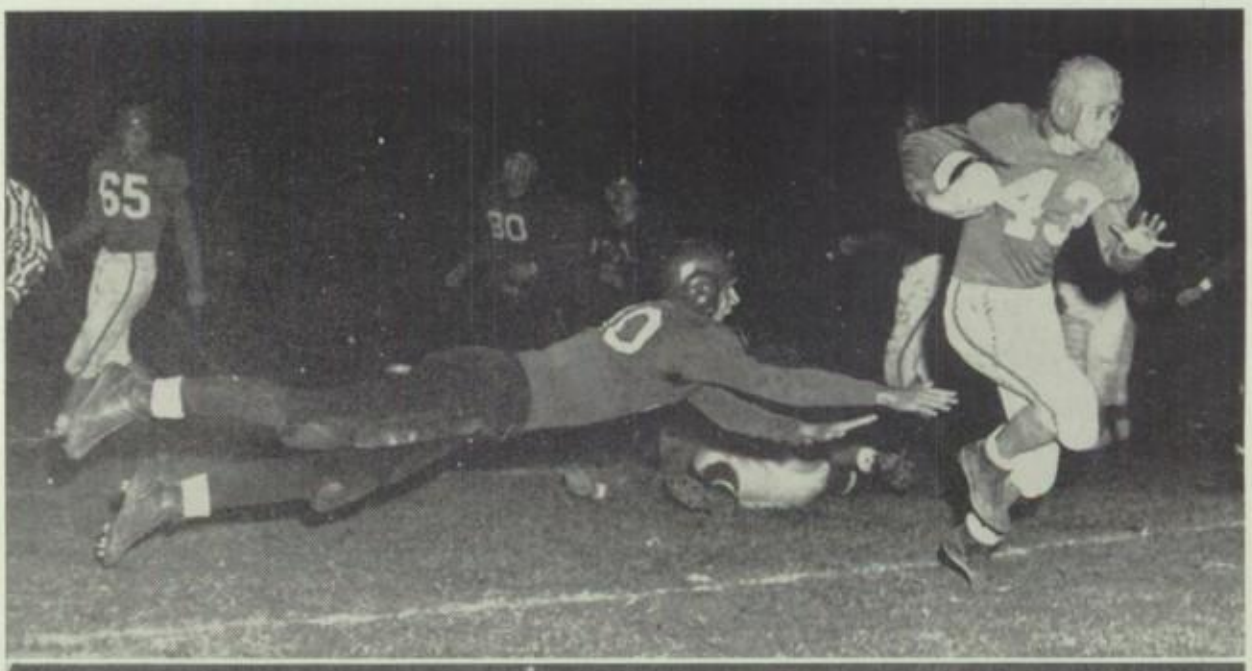


Walter Conn — Fine line-backer. Also played good offensive fullback.

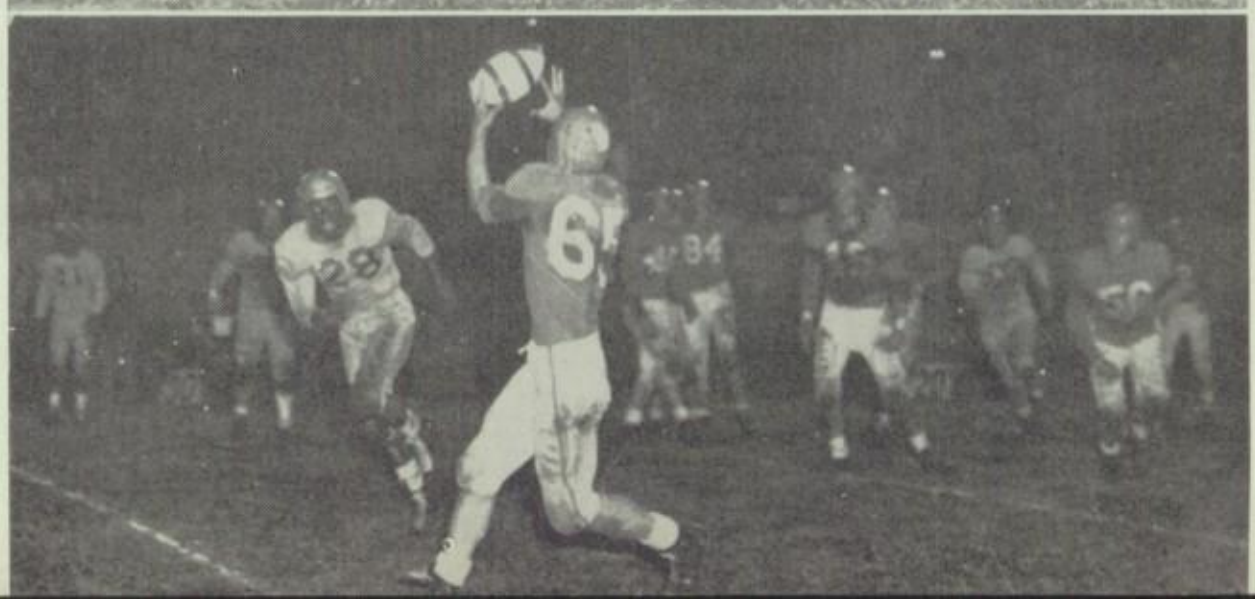
Art Baudry—Played steady football at guard. A very determined performer.

Ted Polich—Powerful runner once he gets going. Returning next year.

The Tiger line, led by All-League performers — End, Bob Long, and Guards, John Roberg and Mike Giddings — paved the way for the hard running backs on offense, and made things tough for opposing ball carriers on defense. The backfield of Bill Sevadjian, who was selected the most valuable player in the league, speedy Pete Scott, and powerful George Gibbs, gave SP one of the finest running teams in the history of the school. On the whole, though, the Tigers played as a team, with each and every man on the squad being responsible for the success of the team.



Pete Scott scores first Tiger touchdown against Glendale on long run. (65) Reynolds. Long (on ground) has blocked Glendale tackle.



Peter Reynolds catches a pass in the dying minutes of the Santa Monica game. (48) Roberg; (84) Long; (45) Giddings; (56) Brabyn.

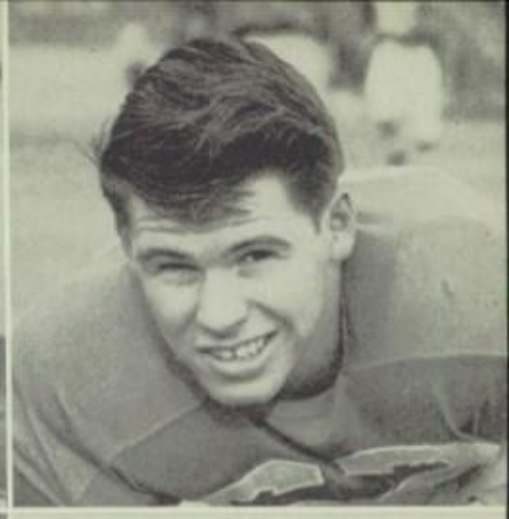
Jo French—One of the most determined men on the squad. A fine halfback.

Ken Simpson — Shifty runner up from the Bees. A fine performer at halfback.

Greg Danninger—Will play a lot of football at tackle for next year's varsity.

Bill Blakeslee — A very capable tackle. Improved greatly and did a fine job.



Don King—Tall, husky end. Also returning next year. Should be great.

Hal Hunter — A very fast back. Played well in his senior year on the varsity.

Bee Football

The South Pasadena Bees, under the able leadership of C. Garland Lewis, posed as a threat to every opponent. The Bees were unscored upon in their first two practice games, downing El Monte 6-0, and Fullerton 8-0. In the first League game, the Tigerkits tied Burbank 13-13. After being played to a standstill for most of the game, Burroughs finally caught fire and scored a 20-0 victory. Hoover edged the Bees 14-7 in a very hard fought game, and Glendale also turned the trick, 27-6. In the final game Muir was beaten 13-6 as the Tigerkits finally came to life.

The Bees had a rough and tumble line led by guards Dick Sands and Bob Halderman. Sands played good ball on both offense and defense, blocked several punts and was the outstanding lineman. Dick Woods did a good job quarterbacking the team, and also stood out on defense. Jim Knerr and tricky Jack Westlund were outstanding ball carriers. Westlund almost broke loose to tie up the Hoover game, but was stopped short of the goal line after scampering seventy-five yard. Dennis Mooney was a stalwart backing-up the line on defense, and was voted the team's outstanding player. Sands and Knerr were elected co-captains and Woods the most improved player.

CIF Runner-ups

Yielding only to Compton in the CIF finals, the varsity cagers, co-champions of the Foothill League, proved to be the surprise team of the 1950-51 basketball season. After winning most of their practice games including a second place in the Pasadena Tournament, the Tigers started the league in fine style, beating Burbank 55-49, Burroughs 66-37, Hoover 57-40, Glendale 48-42 and Muir 38-36, in the first round. Things got tougher in the second round as the Bengals, after beating Burbank 72-38, and Burroughs 57-48, lost to Hoover 43-51 and Glendale 43-58, and then beat Muir 48-42. In the CIF play-offs the surprising Tigers nosed Pasadena 46-45, Loyola 40-38, and San Diego 46-39. In the semi-finals Long Beach Poly fell 48-46, but a strong Compton team ended SP's hopes of a CIF crown by downing the Tigers 47-33.

Coach C. Merrill Green, who seems to have a knack for turning out winning basketball teams, had the highest scoring guard in SP history, Bob Long, to lead his team.

Other individual stars were, Pete Scott, a great competitor whose dead-eye shots pulled the Tigers out of many holes; Bob Weis, an inspired player at forward; lanky Roy Polkinghorne, an outstanding center, and Ted Scott, who set up most of the Tiger scores at guard.

Bee Basketball

The Bee team, although winning six out of eleven practice games, didn't fare too well in league competition, ending the season in a tie for fifth place with Burroughs. It is significant to note, however, that of the eight games the Tigerkits lost, seven of them were by eight points, or less, four of them being lost by three points or under. The Bees chalked up wins over Burroughs and Muir and held CIF champ, Hoover, to an eight point margin.

Individual stars were Captain Dennis Mooney, who led the team in scoring with 168 points, was voted most valuable player, and was placed on the All-League second team, Jack "Swede" Westlund, third high scorer and All-League honorable mention, Al McQueen, elected most improved player, and Don Paris, team second high scorer.

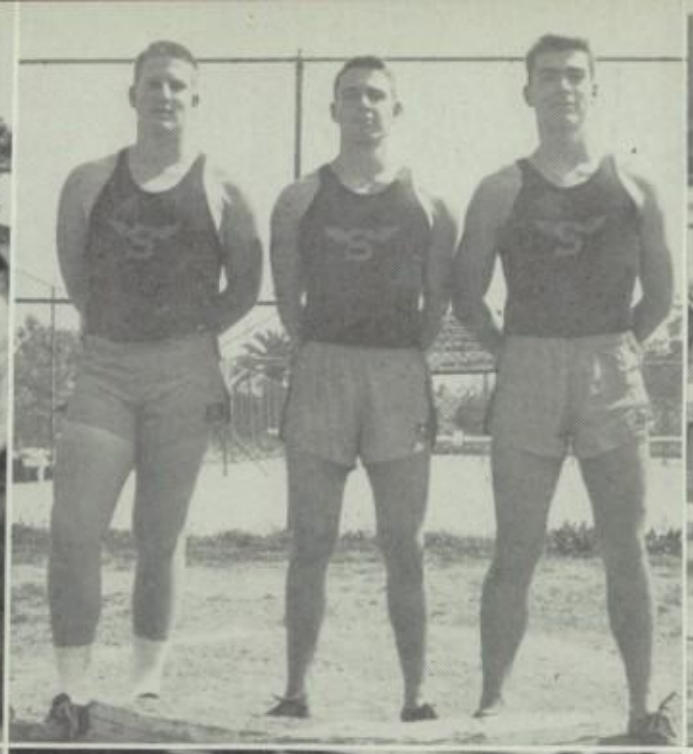
Cee Basketball

The Cee team, lacking depth and height, failed to win a game this season, although giving each opponent a battle, as all South Pasadena teams do even in defeat. Lettermen were: Captain George Minard, Ronnie Clyde, Jim Frazier, Don "Skeeter" Sammis, John McCann, Jim Goertz, and Bob Dwight.



Pete Scott leaps through the air in the broadjump as teammate John White and other boys look on.

SP's three ace shot putters, Don Bennett, Phil Brabyn, and Ted Polich.

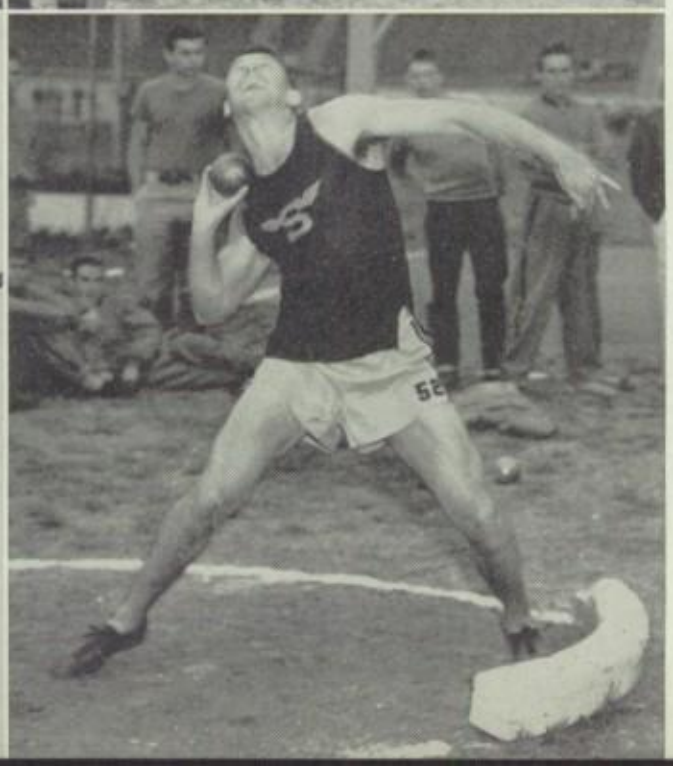
Tim Norton leading the field in the high hurdles.

Tim Norton leads teammate Dick Sands to the tape in the 440.

Record breaker Wells Martell, shown running his specialty, the low hurdles.

Alan McQueen and Willie Howell finish side by side in the mile run.

Ken Kiesler wins the high jump with a leap of 5'10".



Don Seavey goes over the bar in the pole vault.

Phil Brabyn breaks the school record with a put of 53' 8½".

Track

The varsity track squad, ably coached by James Eacutt, simply lacked the depth of a championship team but it did show some outstanding individual performances. Of the six dual meets, the Tigers competed in this year, three were won. After defeating Pomona, the Tigers won two out of five league meets, beating Burbank and Muir, while losing to Burroughs, Glendale, and Hoover.

The two outstanding highlights of the season were the record breaking performances of Phil Brabyn and Wells Martell. Brabyn broke Dex Ragatz's school record for the shot put with a toss 53' 8½", to erase the old mark of 52' 11½". Martell broke the one year old 180 low hurdles record, chopping two-tenths of a second off Jim Noe's record of 20.5s to set the new mark at 20.3s. Brabyn was defeated only once in league competition, while Martell shows much promise if he keeps working hard, being only a junior.

Phil Brabyn captained the squad and he, Martell, and Ken Kiesler were the three top point getters for the season. Kiesler, while breaking no records, showed what an athlete can do if he tries hard enough by winning his share of high jump and broad jump ribbons while also lettering in baseball and playing at the same time, Ken's best marks were 5' 11" in the high jump, and 20' 2" in the broad jump. He also returns next year.

Other performers included Willie Howell and Alan McQueen, milers; Ken Simpson, Hal Hunter, and Bill Wofford, sprints; Tim Norton, an outstanding performer in the 440, hurdles, and relay; Walter Conn, who scored no points in league competition, but came through when the chips were down to take fifth in the league in the low hurdles; Charles McAvoy, pole vault; Ted Polich and Don Bennett, who finished fourth and fifth respectively in the league finals as shot putters; George Underhill, 440; Bob Myers, 880; and Don Shorts, hurdles.

The Bee and Cee tracksters did not fare as well as the varsity, the Bees winning one meet, and the Cees none, but nevertheless turned in some fine performances. Dick Woods, hurdler, and Bill Chapman, sprinter, captained the Bees. Other Bee lettermen included: John White, John Connelly, and Dick Edwards, shot put; Marc Sandstrom, Tom Shove, and Tetsuo Ueda, sprints; Jim Lashbrook, Buddy Melkesian, and Dick Sands, hurdles; Paul Weed, high jump; Charles Buck, pole vault; Don Paris and Cliff Altenburger, 1320.

The Cees were captained by Jud Prather and Bob Tuller, who both got into the league finals in their events, 100 yard dash, and 660, respectively. Other lettermen were: Ken Keck, Tom Harvey, and Tom Twist, sprints; and Ronnie Clyde, broad jump.

During the half-time in a football game our cross country team has a race with the El Monte team.

Cross Country

The cross country team, coached by James Eacutt, and under the direction of Don Rose, won six out of nine meets and did very well against some of the outstanding squads in Southern California. There weren't enough teams in the League for a title, but if there was a championship, the Tigers could claim it, having beaten their only league opponent, Glendale. This marked the first time in the sport's history that South Pasadena had beaten Glendale.

The leading runner was Scott Fisher, who nosed out Willie Howell by one point, meets being scored on lowest score winning, etc. Other Lettermen included Tom Shove, Robert Swink, Jay Bowers, Roy Burdge, and Bob Myers, and John Michel, manager.

CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD. Fisher, Altenburger, Burdge, Howell, Myers, Coach Eacutt.

Varsity Baseball

Foothill League Champs

For only the third time in the history of the high school, South Pasadena's Varsity Baseball Team captured the League Title. For Coach C. Merrill Green this marked a clean sweep in his coaching year, a championship in both basketball and baseball.

The Tigers came back strongly to take the title. After winning the first two games over Burbank and Burroughs, 7-1 and 8-1, respectively, the horsehiders ran into some tough luck and dropped two contests, to Hoover 2-1, and Glendale 3-2. They defeated League leading Muir 9-3, and then started the second round by downing Burbank again 2-1. But Burroughs liked the Tigers 5-1, to put them in third place. Then they became a new team, full of hustle and playing as a good baseball team should.

Hoover fell 4-2, Glendale 7-1, and Muir 5-4. Then in the do or die play-off game with Glendale the Tigers came through with a 3-1 vitcory to enter the CIF play-offs. The Tigers also placed second in the pre-season Pomona Tournament.

Ken Brown, with his fine pitching, led the Tigers to their championship. Brooks Hughes also turned in some fine mound performances. The tigers boasted some fine hitters, Don Seavey and Dennis Walker both hitting over .400, and Jim Knerr, Dennis Mooney, and Mike Giddings clearing the .300 mark. Mooney proved to be the outstanding catcher in the league. The infield of Knerr, Seavey, Jim McDowell, and Giddings gave Brown and Hughes great support, while outfielders Pete Reynolds, Jack Ferron, Ken Kiesler, and Walker also caught anything they got their hands on.

Coach C. Merrill Green and his ace pitcher, Ken Brown.

Dennis Walker — Right field. Only sophomore on squad. Led team in hitting in his first year on the Varsity with .424.

Jim McDowell—Second base. Fancy fielding junior and an expert pivot man on double-plays.

Jim Knerr—Third base. Outstanding third baseman in League. Hit over .300 for second straight year. Returns next year.

Ken Brown—Pitcher. Led the Tigers to the League title. One of the best pitchers in high school baseball.

Dennis Mooney — Catcher. Best catcher at SP for a number of years. Hit over .300, directed the pitchers in fine style.

Pete Reynolds slides into home with a run against Hoover.

Brooks Hughes delivers in action against Muir. Coach Green is shown in the foreground, and the Tiger infield in background.

Don Seavey—Short stop. One of leading hitters on team. A senior who transferred here. Great short stop.

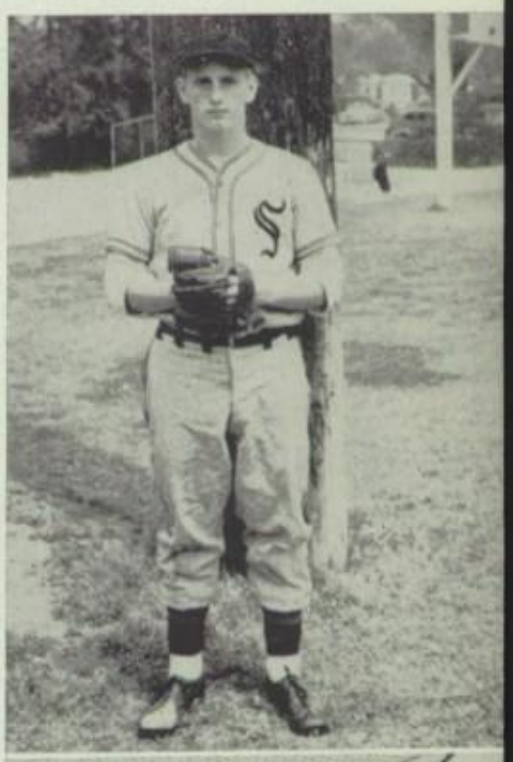
Mike Giddings — First base. Led team in hitting last year and hit over .300 this year. Was the "mouth" of the team.

Pete Reynolds—Center field. Probably the outstanding defensive outfielder in the League. Hit in the clean-up spot.

Mike Giddings stretches out to nab a Burbank runner at first base.

Dennis Mooney connects for a crucial hit against Burroughs.

Ken Brown pitches to a Muir batter at Brookside with Jim McDowell, Dennis Walker, Mike Giddings in the background, and Dennis Mooney catching.



Brooks Hughes—Pitcher. A converted infielder who turned in some fine mound performances. Should be the class of the League next year.

Ken Kiesler—Left field. A returning junior who played good ball in the field and should be outstanding next year.

Jayvee Baseball

Coach C. Garland Lewis with his two captains, the aces of his pitching staff, Phil Bell and Jim Mercer.

The Jayvees did exceptionally well for such an inexperienced team, finishing second in the Foothill League. The team, brought along in fine style by Coach C. Garland Lewis, was captained by its battery mates, catcher Jim Mercer, and pitcher Phil Bell. Gary Biszantz, also turned in some fine games on the mound. After losing the first two League games to Burbank and Burroughs, the Jayvees bounced back to win their remaining three games, showing once more the do or die spirit of South Pasadena. Darold Klein led the team in hitting with a lusty .349 average. Infielders, Jim Lorenz, third base, Bobby "Tea-Bags" Dwight, shortstop, John McCann, second base and Roger Keller, first base, all played good ball on defense as well as getting hits at the right time. The outfield, consisting of Roger Bunting, Bardon McGinnis, and Klein also proved themselves highly capable ball players.

Jayvee Tennis

The Jayvees kept up SP's tennis traditions, easily winning the Foothill League, although only three teams entered. However, the Jayvees also played other varsity teams, such as Rosemead and Mark Keppel, and defeated them with almost as much ease. Certainly this is an outstanding accomplishment, beating other school's varsities with our Jayvees. Also, some of the boys played with the varsity after showing their worth on the Jayvees. During the early part of the season, Lou Amestoy, Bill Blakeslee, and Jim Sobieski at singles, and Tom Mitchell and Tom Taylor at doubles carried the load, notching the victories for the all-conquering team.

Sparking the Jayvees to victory in most of their League matches were lettermen, Sobieski, Al Jordan, Tim Green, Don Paris, Chuck Hammond, John Huston, and Carl Ceaser. Much credit is due to this team in keeping the fine record of SP's Tennis Teams.

Tennis Champs

Coach Harry Swart and varsity captain, Ted Scott.

Varsity Tennis

Once again, up to this writing, Coach Harry Swart's varsity racquetmen had been undefeated. Their record at this date, was thirty-three straight wins, including matches won over Loyola 27-1, and Long Beach 22-6, in the CIF preliminaries. Sixteen of these wins were by love scores where the Tiger net stars held their opponents to no winning games. By winning the League once again, it marked the twenty-fourth time in twenty-six years of competition that the Tigers have done so. Also, the Tennis Team kept up the fine showing of South Pasadena Athletic Teams this year, this being the fourth championship in the five varsity sports this year. The Football, Basketball, and Baseball Teams preceded the all conquering Tennis Team. Credit for this splendid record goes to Coach Harry Swart, whose coaching in tennis cannot be matched in high-school ranks.

Besides taking the League and also being in a good spot to take the CIF crown, Beverly Hills being the only team standing in their way, the Tigers also trounced Monterey, Northern California champs, and Santa Monica, a perennial top team in the CIF. Leading the team were Bill Cranston and Bob Norton, top singles men, and Captain Ted Scott and Brooke Grant, doubles champs. Other boys who contributed greatly to the team's success were, Ray Pentz, Tom Peterson, Bill Foote, Art Pizzinat, Gene Barnes, Roy Myers, Bill Blakeslee, Tom Taylor and Tom Mitchell.

Girls' Sports

Two new additions were made in the girls' physical education department this year with the coming of Miss Donna Mae Halverson and Mrs. Marietta Schick. Miss Halverson replaced Miss Helen Reese, now serving as librarian. Miss Vivian Atherton continued as sports instructor.

Modern Dance is a new curriculum introduced this year by Mrs. Schick. Monday and Wednesday of each week are dedicated to this new type of physical education. Several schools entered modern dance competition where South Pasadena-San Marino High School ranked high each time. Programs were presented by these classes to the Girls' League, the P.-T.A., and several other schools and organizations.

Each Friday the senior girls were instructed by Miss Halverson in a non-athletic class. The first semester the girls discussed the rules of good health and the second semester they studied first aid, now required for graduation.

An important part of the physical education program were tennis and badminton, primarily designed for those girls not enrolled in modern dance classes.

Each school quarter ushered a new sport on to the girls' gym field. This year Naomi Hoyt's fifth period team was victorious in the final volleyball playoff. Hockey was included in the second and third quarters with Erin Doyle's first period team emerging victorious. Basketball season saw much enthusiasm as did the final quarter's sport, softball.

Mary Kyropolous headed the Girls' League Sport Committee in the Girls' League. Several play days were held during the year, giving the girls an opportunity to travel to other schools to take part in some stiff competition.

Fridays At 10:00

One of the most dynamic and popular programs of the year was the highly anticipated Edward "Kid" Ory assembly. This was enjoyed especially by the dixie-land fans and also by those who admire good showmanship.

The audience shared the enthusiasm of the band when "The Kid" marched down the aisle to the refrain of the "Muskrat Ramble."

Varsity football coach, Frank Williamson, presents letters to the co-captains, John Roberg and Mike Giddings. Looking on are other members of the squad who took part in the year's successful football season.

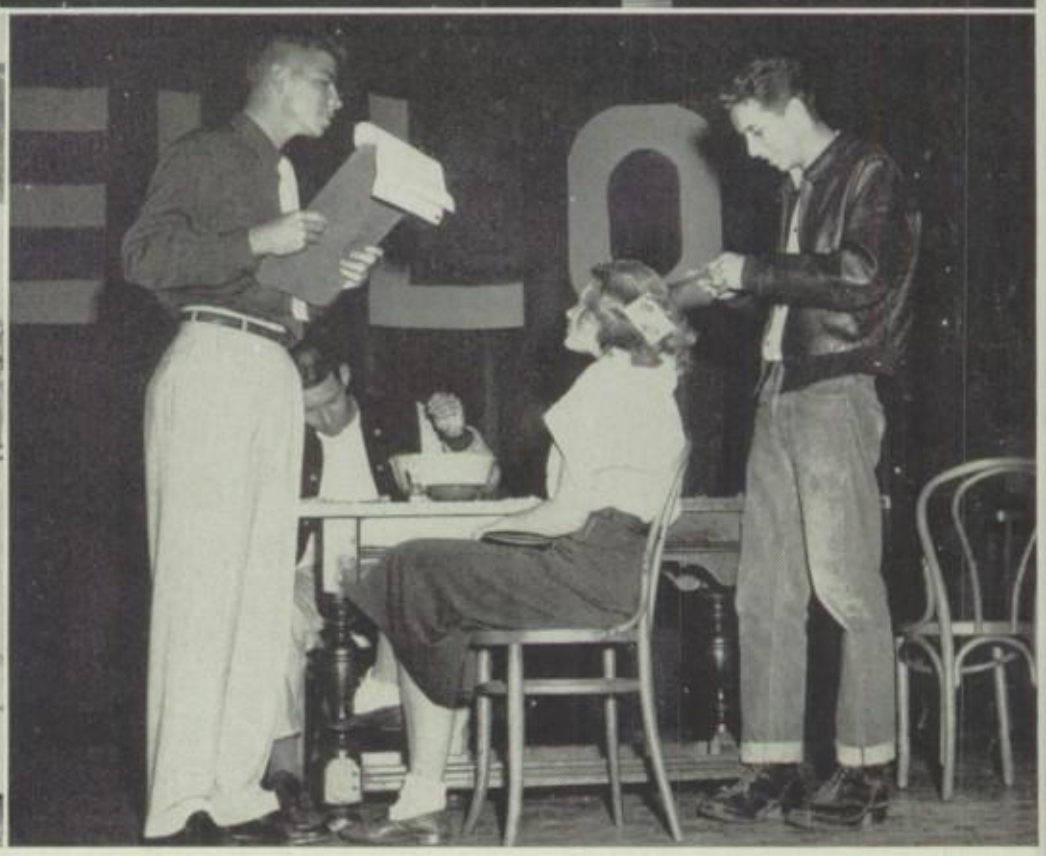
Dancing to Eddie Cantor's record of "If You Knew Susie," a group of girls featuring Marilyn Baldwin, was one of the acts making up the junior class assembly. The outstanding feature of this program was clever stage setting which gave the audience the illusion of watching a giant television screen.

Following the dude ranch theme, some members of the senior class participate in a square dance. This number was one of the features of the senior assembly, which is traditionally the first class assembly of the year.

Coach C. Merrill Green presents letters to the varsity basketball squad. He congratulates Bob Long for his outstanding job as guard during the season. Looking on are other lettermen, Bob Weis, Paul Bode, Mike Giddings, Ken Brown, Ted Scott, and Ted Polich.

Buzz Ragatz, Dr. Elmer Erickson, George Wright, and Mr. Laurence Harper confer over the Carver Award which was presented to George. The winning of the award is the highest honor bestowed to a student at graduation from SPSMHS.

In this scene from the annual Christmas play, "The Music Box," a group of carolers sing some seasonal songs. It was presented by the Cloak and Dagger Dramatic Club.



Tim Norton, as master of ceremonies, looks on as Roy Burdge curls Carolyn Anderson's hair as the consequences in the Hello Day assembly. Phil Brabyn is in the background counting a large bowl of beans.

Chris Mardigian and Dionne Pulskamp participate in a Charleston number which was part of the sophomore assembly. The setting for this program was a classroom of the late 1920's.

Magician Buzz Ragatz, assisted by John Roberg and Jerry Turner, help Jo French from a trunk in one of the high points of Buzz's magic assembly.

Bob Hubert and Brian Moore take part in a Copa skit, whose purpose was to point out the advantages of the annual to the students.

Bert Shurtleff demonstrates some professional wrestling techniques with the assistance of Don Bennett in assembly.

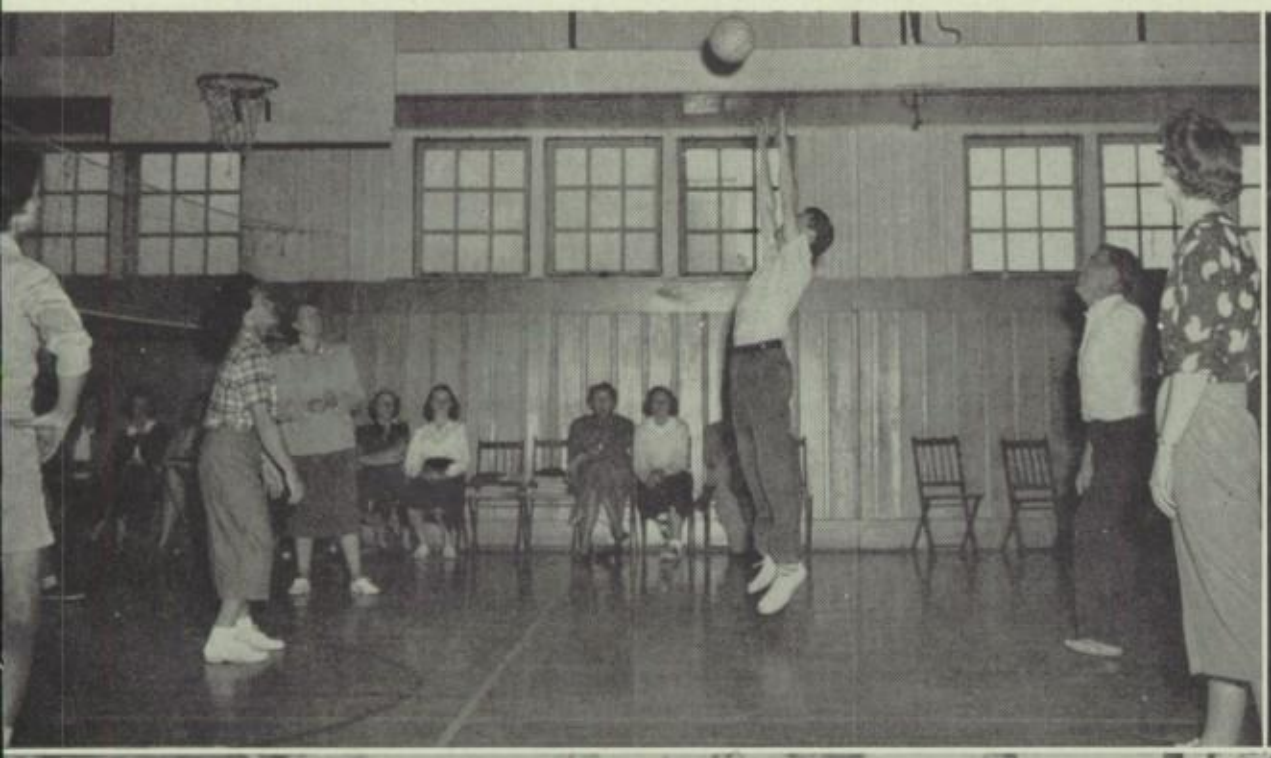
For the first time in the history of the Copa de Oro, putting out the annual was more than a staff project. Working on the silk screening were members of Mr. Phippin's print shop, Miss Lauman's art classes, plus the regular staff members.

It has been several years since color has been used in the Copa. This year it was decided to silk screen division pages and end sheets. This required over 28,000 printings as each color had to be printed separately and then the name of the division printed on the back.



Mr. Wilson leaps for a high one in the faculty-student volleyball game.

Ernest Brooks, Photographer

The most sincere thanks and appreciation go to Nancy Wallace from ERNEST BROOKS, PHOTOGRAPHER, 1008 Fair Oaks Avenue, South Pasadena. Nancy has worked many long and hard hours on junior and senior pictures and she's done a terrific job.

Santa -

all I can say is the same usual thing that everybody else says.

I hope you and Don will be happy and will always be together, he's a great guy. Good luck as always.

In Appreciation

Now that the end of this school year is upon us, and most of the din and confusion of following schedules and meeting deadlines has died down, your editor and staff members can stop and pay tribute to the many persons and organizations whose efforts and cooperation have helped in many ways to make this publication possible.

First of all there are the faculty advisers. Mr. E. H. Crook, adviser for the editorial, photographic, and business activities, was the governing force behind the annual, for without his guidance its existence would have been an impossibility. Mr. Crook has done a splendid job as the adviser for the annuals each year since 1936 with the exception of 1943, when he was serving in the Navy. Miss Hester Lauman, whose inspiration, guidance, and hard work have made possible the art work found in the book. She and her art students with a tremendous amount of work have produced the design for the cover and actually printed by the silk screen process from their own designs the end sheets and the four 4-page color division inserts. All of this was certainly an ambitious project. Miss Lauman, we thank you.

Of course, no book such as this, is possible without the advice and the work of various artisans and business organizations. Mr. Ernest Brooks, of Brooks Studio, in South Pasadena, who in addition to doing all the studio portraits of seniors and juniors, was always ready to help whenever the staff needed his valuable assistance.

Another was that pleasant, affable, and helpful gentleman, Mr. Bert Walters of Parker and Company, of Los Angeles, who made many trips from Los Angeles, in handling the engraving, the printing and the binding, all of which required a tremendous amount of fine craftsmanship. To him, we are sincerely grateful.

For the cover of the book we are indebted to that genial young gentleman, Mr. Bill Retchin of the S. K. Smith Company who set to work after receiving the designs of our art staff.

Among the many students whose assistance has been most valuable are those photographers, art students, and salesmen among whom are Ronnie Mardigian. There are probably art students who are not staff members who deserve recognition.

The administrators, faculty, and many students have been most cooperative, helpful, and in many ways, most patient and understanding. To them we extend our sincere thanks.

The Staff
